
APPLES & HONEY: HIGH HOLIDAY PROGRAMS FOR FAMILIES & CHILDREN 2019/5780

Family Services (Free; Online Pre-Registration Required)

Join us for lively and engaging services geared toward families led by Rabbi Seth Castleman. Because of increased security measures at CBH, pre-registration is required for these free Family Services. In addition, for the safety of our children, parental supervision for children is required.

Erev Rosh Hashanah Family Service, Sunday 9/29 5:30-6:15pm, CBH Sanctuary

Using familiar and High Holy Day melodies, we will bring in the new year with joy, celebration and community. Hear the shofar, enjoy some apples, honey, and challah, and visit with friends.

Rosh Hashanah Day Family Service, Mon. 9/30 9:00-9:45am, CBH South Classroom

Our Family Service is a shorter service that includes traditional liturgy and music to provide a meaningful spiritual experience that parents and children can enjoy together.

Tashlich in the Park, Monday 9/30 4:00-5:00pm, North Star Park

Tashlich is a delightful, casual family experience & service on Rosh Hashanah afternoon. Dress comfortably and bring a picnic blanket and join us under the shade trees adjacent to the Northstar Park play structure at the intersection of Mercedes Avenue and Norte Avenue in the Northstar neighborhood. A symbolic “casting off” of sins, the Tashlich gathering will end with participants throwing small bits of bread into Northstar Pond.

Yom Kippur Day Family Service, Wed. 10/9 9:00-9:45am, CBH South Classroom

Our Family Service is a shorter service that includes traditional liturgy and music to provide a meaningful spiritual experience that parents and children can enjoy together.

Yom Kippur Break the Fast Family Service and Potluck in the Park, Wednesday 10/9, 4:30-7:00pm, Pioneer Park 5035 Swingle Dr., Davis

Join us for a family-friendly service at 4:30pm followed by a joyful potluck in the park.

Children's Programming

(Online Pre-Registration Required)

Children ages 3-10 (Fifth Grade) are invited to share in engaging, meaningful and well-supervised age-appropriate programming during the High Holy Days at CBH. Our Children's Programming will include meaningful holiday crafts, stories, music, and snacks. While unsupervised activity cannot be permitted on-site during services, parents are welcome to have their children join them in either the Traditional or Contemporary Services for all or part of each service.

Rosh Hashanah Day Children's Programming 9/30 9:45am-12:30pm

Yom Kippur Day Children's Programming 10/9 9:45am-12:30pm

In order to support teacher preparations and ordering of supplies, early registration is encouraged. Because of increased security measures at CBH, pre-registration is required for Children's Programming. The following deadlines are designed to support early registration:

Price is for each day:

Early Registration Discount (before September 17th): $15 per day (each child)

Regular Registration (from September 18th through 24th): $20 per day (each child)

Registration closes on Wednesday, September 25th. Limited space may be available following this deadline at a fee of $30 per day (each child)

Blessing for New Babies in Contemporary Service:

As part of the Rosh Hashanah service, after the Torah reading (approximately 10:00am), all babies born since last Rosh Hashanah will receive a special blessing. Parents, grandparents, bring up your new baby or a photo to receive this mitzvah!
